FIREARMS PROPERTY CLAIM FORM

IMPORTANT NOTES

Duty of Disclosure

Before you enter into a contract of general insurance with an insurer you have a duty under the Insurance Contract Act 1984 to disclose to the insurer every matter that you know, or could reasonably expect to know, is relevant to the insurer's decision whether to accept the risk of insurance and, if so, on what terms.

You have the same duty to disclose those matters to the insurer before you renew, extend, vary or reinstate a contract of general insurance.

- Your duty, however, does not require disclosure of any matter;
- That diminishes the risk to be undertaken of any matter;
- That is of common knowledge;
- That your insurer knows or, in the ordinary course of their business, ought to know;
- As to which compliance with your duty is waived by the insurer

Non-disclosure

If you fail to comply with your duty of disclosure, the insurer may be entitled to reduce their liability under the contract in respect of a claim or may cancel the contract. If your non-disclosure is fraudulent, the insurer may also have the option of avoiding the contract from its beginning.
